

2018 BUFFALOCREEKGUNCLUBAR-15 CLINICS

These clinics have been designed to cover all aspects of High Power Rifle Competition. Upon completion of the series, you'll be fully prepared to confidently enter any NRA High Power Rifle competition. Also, completion of any of these clinics will satisfy the CMP requirements to purchase US surplus rifles and ammunition.

All clinics will include an informative lecture on safety, handling, and function of the AR-15.

Each clinic focuses on the four positions used in matches.

June 3, 2018 — All Positions, 200 Yards

July 28, 2018 — All Positions, 200 Yards

August 26, 2018 — All Positions, 200 Yards

AR-15 CLINIC FAQ

What do I need to bring? BCGC will furnish "National Match" grade AR-15s and .223 ammunition for all clinics. If you wish, you may be instructed using your personal Service Rifle. If your rifle is not .223, you must supply your own ammunition. Check our website, www.BCGC.com, for a complete list of personal items to bring. Be aware that there is NO water available on the range and primitive toilets ONLY.

Where are the clinics held? All clinics are held at the Buffalo Creek Gun Club/Camp Fickes rifle range. The range is approximately one and one-half hours from Denver. Take US Highway 285 south to Bailey, CO. The range is in the Pike National Forest south and east of Bailey. See the map below:
